

Race Crew Job Description

Position: Race Crew / Coach

Updated: October 2023

Supervisor: Race Director

Overview:

Responsible for assisting in all race functions including: high school race teams, adult corporate leagues and college races. Assisting in course set-up and maintenance as well as technical responsibilities for successful race completion. This is a good opportunity for STUDENTS. (Under 18 MUST clock out by 9:00pm.) We would also be interested in INSTRUCTORS looking to add more dependable hours to their work week, and college students looking for some work over their winter break.

Essential Functions/Responsibilities (to include, but not limited to the following):

- Assist in setting courses. (HS training starts at 3:00 pm and runs until about 7:00pm)
- Assist in maintaining race equipment including safety fencing.
- Assist in running races. (Some partially INDOOR work available.)
- Assist in running corporate race series. (Evenings 5-9)
- All other duties as assigned.

Requirements:

- NO RACE EXPERIENCE NECESSARY
- RELIABILITY. You must be a dependable and punctual team member.
- Good Skiing ability (without poles) and general fitness/hardiness.
- Ability to work in a fast-paced environment and learn as you earn!
- Work well with other team members. Positive, FUN attitude.
- Wear uniform (provided) at all times while on duty.
- Work in varying weather conditions. Dress for success.
- General familiarity with power and hand tools. General familiarity with computers/cameras.

Schedule:

Work Schedules are somewhat flexible and part time, though more hours are available during peak season. We are looking primarily for afternoon and evening shifts. A typical "full" afternoon shift would be from about 2:00pm to 9:30pm. While we would prefer to count on you Mon-Thurs, singles or doubles per week are possible. Compensation depends on experience and performance.

What to expect from us:

A fun and fast work environment. We expect you to work hard and play hard. We expect you to learn as you earn! Employment for the season is usually from the beginning of December through the end of March. We offer a competitive wage, free skiing, rentals and lessons (all with supervisor approval); meal discounts and discounts in our retail shop.
