

Ski NH Member Area Employee Reciprocity for the 2023-24 Ski Season

Updated 1/16/24

Please see the ski letters below, if you don't see your ski area listed here, please send your reciprocal policy to Kathleen@SkiNH.com for inclusion.

Attitash & Wildcat will offer any other area's employee full or part-time an $84 ticket any day of the week. Other area employees need to bring a letter stating their employment and a form of ID.

Dear Ski Area Manager,

Black Mountain is pleased to announce that it will continue with full reciprocal skiing privileges with New England Ski Areas during the 2023-2024 season. Black Mountain will offer the following courtesies to employees of New England Ski Areas that offer Black Mountain employees' comparable courtesies. Employees of resorts that choose not to reciprocate this policy will be offered identical privileges to those offered by their home mountain.

The following conditions will apply:

- * Reciprocity privileges include skiing and riding for your employees Monday through Friday (non-holiday*). **Dec. 26, 2023-Jan 1, 2024; Jan. 13-15 & Feb. 17-25, 2024.*
- * Full time employees receive complimentary lift tickets. Part time employees receive half price lift tickets.
- * The visitor's home ski area must be open at the time of the visit and must be currently offering a reciprocal program for Black Mountain employees.
- * The employee must present a typed letter on your ski area's original stationery, which is dated, introduces the employee, states whether the employee is full or part time and the date the employee will be skiing. The letter must be signed by senior management. Photocopies will not be accepted.
- * The employee will be required to show identification. Acceptable Identification is an employee ID/Seasons Pass or Driver's license.
- * Home area uniforms and other mountain's logos may not be worn.
- * One letter per visit; no more than 2 visits per person per week.
- * Black Mountain reserves the right to suspend this policy at Management's discretion.

Thank you and we look forward to seeing your employees here at Black Mountain this season.
